GELEST, INC AND MERYER (SHANGHAI) CHEMICAL TECHNOLOGY CO., LTD CO-EXHIBITING AT CPhI CHINA, JUNE 2014

MORRISVILLE, Penn. (June 24, 2014) - Co-exhibiting with Meryer (Shanghai) Chemical Technology Co., Ltd at CPhI China today, Gelest, Inc. reaffirms its relationship with Meryer as exclusive distributor for Gelest products sold into the pharmaceutical, separation sciences, microelectronics and polymeric materials markets. Meryer is exclusive distributor for the complete line of Gelest silane, metal-organics and silicone products, serving China, including Hong Kong and Macao as of 2011.

Gelest, Inc., with core manufacturing competencies and expertise in silane, silicone and metal-organic chemistries, is experiencing a worldwide increase in demand in specialty applications. The China market continues to be a high-growth area.

Shanghai-based Meryer has successfully served the high-technology sectors. The company has well-established logistics and a technically trained staff with the ability to service diverse customer requirements.

Opportunities for silane, metal-organics and silicone products in advanced technology industries including pharmaceutical, cosmetics, biosciences, dental, medical devices and agriculture has created a demand for sales support and locally warehoused products in the region. Gelest, Inc. and Meryer (Shanghai) Chemical Technology Co., Ltd are well-positioned to respond.
