Gelest Expands Customer Support in India Through Collaboration with Nordmann

MORRISVILLE, Pa., Feb. 9, 2026 – Gelest, Inc., a Mitsubishi Chemical Group company, is strengthening regional support for customers in India through its ongoing collaboration with Nordmann.

This alignment enhances Gelest's ability to provide closer in-country engagement, improved responsiveness, and more direct access to commercial coordination and technical expertise. Nordmann's established presence in India supports local connectivity and reinforces a consistent customer experience.

Through this collaboration, Nordmann supports Gelest's portfolio of silanes, silicones, metal-organic compounds, and specialty materials used across electronics, medical technologies, pharmaceuticals, advanced coatings, and emerging manufacturing applications. The expanded regional scope reflects Gelest's continued focus on accessibility, service continuity, and customer support in key global markets.

Gelest's technical, regulatory, and product management teams continue to work closely with Nordmann to support customer applications and development activities, ensuring consistency and alignment across the partnership.
